

THE POWER OF PEACE Festival

CELEBRATING THE GLOBAL MAHATMA GANDHI
an initiative of Gandhi Salt March Limited

You are Invited to attend the Official Reception featuring the Forum over Dinner

SAT

OCT

FORUM ON:

Peace, Nonviolence & Inclusiveness; Are Gandhi Values Relevant in the 21st Century?

Queensland Art Gallery

ALSO FEATURING

Images of Truth

Ishara Puppet Theatre

For registration, go to www.trybooking.com/322867

The cost is $150 per person (gst included) , $1300 per table of 10 (gst included).

FORUM

First time in Australia, the Forum will be represented in a Panel Discussion by distinguished speakers from diverse backgrounds including ethnicity, religion and gender from industry and academia in Australia and overseas.

The Panel members will share insights, discussion and deliberation on the relevance of peace, nonviolence and inclusiveness to shape up a humanitarian society in the 21st Century.

SPEAKERS

Dr Ela Gandhi

Granddaughter of Mahatma Gandhi will participate from South Africa

Mr Peter Varghese AO

Chancellor of the University of Queensland, former Secretary of Foreign Affairs, Australia

Mr Neville Roach AO

Former CEO for Fujitsu, Australia
Former Chair of National Multicultural Advisory Council, Australia

Prof Arun Sharma

Deputy Vice Chancellor at QUT,
Humanitarian & Kenynote Speaker

Ms Maxine McKew

Hon Enterprise Professor, Australia

Ms Carol Angir

Program Manager Women's Rights and emergencies, A/Head of Programs

Ms Rabia Siddique

Humanitarian Lawyer, British Army (ret'd),
War Crimes Prosecutor, Hostage Survivor

This event will be live streamed across the world to the people who are signing signforpeace.actonit.com.au
The full program is available at www.powerofpeacefestival.org

facebook.com/
powerofpeacefestival

@powerofpeaceAU

Forum contact: Tamanna Monem, Convenor tamanna@powerofpeacefestival.org